

Publication requirements of MPhil and PhD candidates

All MPhil and PhD candidates who registered before 14.08.2017 should fulfill the following conditions.

Requirement	MPhil	PhD
Conference abstract from the thesis work	02	02
Peer reviewed journal papers from the thesis work	-	01

All MPhil and PhD candidates who registered after 14.08.2017 should fulfill the following conditions.

Requirement	MPhil	PhD
Conference abstract from the thesis work	02	02
Peer reviewed journal papers from the thesis work	01	02

Student must fulfill the publication requirements before the viva voce examination as per the requirements of the By Law.

In all publications and presentations arising from PhD, MPhil and MA studies registered at Faculty of Graduate Studies, University of Ruhuna should include the supervisor's names as Coauthors according to their contribution.

In all above publications the first author has to be the PhD, MPhil or the MA Students.

In case a candidate is unable to complete the publications requirements by the day to viva voce examination, FGS may allow the candidate to fulfill the requirements only up to the maximum registration period.

In case a candidate has received extension over the maximum registration period, the candidate must complete publication requirement before the viva voce examination as per the condition given condition given in the By Law.

Depuy Registrar
Faculty of Graduate Studies
University of Ruhuna